Good News Club FAQs

1. What are Good News Clubs?
   These are classes held by Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF) of Wyoming & Sullivan Counties, Inc. The Good News Club (GNC) lasts approximately one hour and thirty minutes, one day per week.
2. What takes place in these Clubs?
   The children sing songs and choruses, learn a Bible memory verse, hear a continuing missionary story, and hear a Bible lesson. There are games and other activities as well.
3. Is there a fee for participating?
   There is NO COST or expense to the children or their families for participating. No public monies are used. CEF is a non-profit organization supported by individual donors and churches. We are inter-denominational and independent of other religious affiliations. Our State Headquarters is located in Harrisburg at 4305 Winthrop Drive. Information can also be found online at cefepa.net. As part of our club program, we support missionaries around the world from various missions' organizations, and a free-will offering is taken for these missionaries. However, the children and their families are at NO TIME under any obligation to give to this free-will offering, CEF of Wyoming & Sullivan Counties, or CEF of Eastern PA.
4. How do parents enroll their children in these classes?
   Online registration is also available on our website. cefwysul.org Church based clubs typically do not require preregistration, however SCSD and the Tunkhannock Community Club do require preregistration.
5. When are clubs held?
   GNC begins the first week in October and runs through the end of April.
6. Which grades are involved?
   We offer GNC to all children in grades K-6.
7. Whom do I contact with questions?
   If you have any further questions contact Kim Teeters, Director of Child Evangelism Fellowship of Wyoming and Sullivan Counties, Inc. She can be reached by call or text at 570.836.2716 or by email at cefwysul@gmail.com, please feel free to reach out with your questions or concerns.
