After School/In School Good News Club FAQs

1. What are After School/In School Good News Clubs?
   These are classes held by Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF) of Wyoming & Sullivan Counties, Inc. The children enrolled attend the class or "club" after school, in the Sullivan County Elementary School Library. The children sing songs and choruses, learn a Bible memory verse, hear a continuing missionary story, and hear a Bible lesson. There are games and other activities as well. The club is neither sponsored nor endorsed by SCSD.
2. Is there a fee for participating?
   There is NO COST or expense to the children or their families for participating. No public monies are used. CEF is a non-profit organization supported by individual donors and churches. We are inter-denominational and independent of other religious affiliations. Our State Headquarters is located in Harrisburg at 4305 Winthrop Drive. Information can also be found online at cefepa.net. As part of our club program, we support missionaries around the world from various missions' organizations, and a free-will offering is taken for these missionaries. However, the children and their families are at NO TIME under any obligation to give to this free-will offering, CEF of Wyoming & Sullivan Counties, or CEF of Eastern PA.
3. How do parents enroll their children in these classes?
   Parents may use the permission slip provided to inform the school and CEF that they wish to enroll their child(ren). These permission slips are provided by CEF and are distributed to the students of the schools where the clubs are being held. Permission slips are returned to the school.
4. Whom do I contact with questions?
